Hello,

In August, Star Diamond Corporation successfully acquired Canterra Minerals Corporation's 50% interest in the Buffalo Hills Diamond Project. This strategic move will allow us to evaluate the near-surface kimberlites containing high-value diamonds, including fancy yellows. With Star Diamond now owning 100% of the project, it strengthens the company's position in the diamond exploration and development sector. The Company is enthusiastic about the project's potential and believes it holds significant value and promising growth opportunities.
